Dear Chief Blair,

Please find attached the Canadian Civil Liberties Association's preliminary report of our observations made during the G20 Summit entitled, A Breach of the Peace. The report is based on the first-hand observations of 50 CCLA human rights monitors who were dispatched by our organization to monitor respect for constitutional liberties at G20-related events and demonstrations. In our view, despite instances of commendable and professional conduct, the policing and security efforts at the G20 Summit, especially after 5PM on June 26 and June 27, failed to demonstrate commitment to Canada's constitutional values.

The report concludes with a series of recommendations, several of which are directed to the Toronto Police Service in particular and to the Ontario government more generally. We hope you afford them the close attention and consideration we feel they rightly deserve.

I welcome the opportunity to meet and discuss with you the observations made in our report and the recommendations arising from it.

Yours Sincerely,

Nathalie Des Rosiers
General Counsel
Canadian Civil Liberties Association
